

Animal Track Guide

We can learn about where animals go and what they do by identifying their footprints and tracks. Tracks are best seen in moist areas like the trails around the lake, and in dust and loose dirt as on the playing fields and active oval trail. Check the boxes to record what you see.

