Update: COVID-19 and Piedmont Park Conservancy

Dear Neighbors and Friends:

With the rapidly evolving circumstances associated with COVID-19, we at Piedmont Park Conservancy want to share relevant information with you regarding Piedmont Park. We are closely monitoring the latest news and updates from the CDC, state and local government officials in order to make the most informed decisions relating to our events and programs.

Ultimately, our priority is the health and safety of Piedmont Park visitors. At this time, the 200+ acres that comprise Piedmont Park remain open and free to the public. The Conservancy is working hard to continue its daily operations during this dynamic and difficult time.

You, our neighbors, members, supporters and friends, have relied on the Conservancy for years for the most current and credible information relating to Piedmont Park. We have dedicated an area of our website for information that will keep you informed of any closures, postponements or cancellations. We
